Purpose and Role

The committee is responsible for preventing, addressing, and resolving complaints related to sexual harassment. It ensures that every individual on campus is treated with dignity and that incidents of harassment are dealt with swiftly, confidentially, and justly.

Key Functions

- Receive and address complaints of sexual harassment in a confidential and supportive manner.
- Conduct inquiries in a time-bound, unbiased, and legally compliant way.
- Organize workshops and awareness programs on gender sensitivity, consent, and respectful conduct.
- Recommend disciplinary actions and policy changes to prevent harassment.
- Provide emotional and legal support to affected individuals, where needed.

Zero-Tolerance Commitment

SIE adopts a zero-tolerance policy toward any form of sexual harassment and is dedicated to fostering a campus culture based on equality, mutual respect, and empowerment.
